

DIGBY SCALLOP EXPERIENCE

Wharf to Plate

FUNDY RESTAURANT & SUITES

Discover Digby's most iconic catch through an authentic culinary experience led by a retired scallop captain. Arrive early to explore the town, then gather overlooking the harbour for stories from life at sea, followed by a live cooking demonstration and tasting featuring fresh scallops prepared three different ways. You'll leave with a deeper appreciation for the people, traditions, and coastal community behind this world-famous seafood.

Highlights

- Arrive early with the Digby Wharf-Side Wanders List, a digital guide to waterfront stops including Admirals Walk and Museum, lighthouse viewpoints, Fisherman's Memorial Park, and other highlights.
- Gather at Fundy Restaurant overlooking working fishing boats to learn the Digby scallop story, led by retired scallop captain Vance Hazelton.
- Learn why Digby is the Scallop Capital of the World, how the fishery works, and what makes Digby scallops globally respected.
- Step into the kitchen for a live scallop cooking demonstration, where simple techniques highlight flavour, texture, and freshness.
- Savour a fresh Digby scallop tasting prepared three different ways, with optional wine or cider pairing.
- The experience then shifts from storytelling to the kitchen, where a live cooking demonstration and tasting bring the wharf-to-plate story to life. With fresh local flavour, authentic storytelling, and the working waterfront all around you, this is a memorable taste of Digby's coastal identity.

Dates: May - October

Price: $65 per person

The experience takes place from approximately 3pm to 5pm, but we encourage you to arrive early to explore the Town of Digby.
